

A dime means you served with the soldier in some capacity.

A penny simply means you visited the gravestone.

A Quarter Means that you were with the soldier when they died.

A nickle means you and the deceased trained at boot camp together.

